PROMINENT CHINAMAN MURDERED

Robbery The Probable Motive For Ruthless Killing Of Wong Bat, Chinese Merchant

Wong Same, better known as Wong Bat, Manager of the Kon Wo Company and prominent in Kelowna's Chinatown, was murdered late on Tuesday night or in the early hours of Wednesday morning. His dead body, lying face downward on the lawn of his Eli Avenue residence in the Chinese section of the city, was discovered on Wednesday morning by his wife, who immediately communicated with friends. The police were summoned and an investigation was proceeded with at once.

Wong Bat was instantly killed by a powerful blow dealt on the back of his head with a heavy two-by-two-inch piece of lumber by an unknown assailant. The blow landed with such force that the skull was fractured, a fact revealed by an autopsy performed by Dr. B. deF. Boyce yesterday morning. The weapon used was found near the body.

It has been fairly well established that robbery was the motive for the crime, as it was Wong Bat's custom to carry large sums of money with him at all times. Less than $10 in loose change was found in his pockets on Wednesday morning, but it is believed that he had several hundred dollars on his person when attacked. When making purchases he invariably produced a huge roll of bills, consequently it was common knowledge that he carried large amounts of cash.

The hour at which Wong Bat left the premises of the Kon Wo Company for his home nearby has not yet been definitely ascertained. He was seen in the building at 10.30 o'clock on Tuesday night by Hop Lee, who runs the Hop Lee laundry on Lawrence Avenue. To reach his house, which is situated beside the lane running from Eli Avenue at one side of the Kon Wo Company building to the next street, he had to walk only a short distance down the lane, turn in at his gate and cross the small front yard or lawn. On the night of the murder, carrying a bowl of chop suey, presumably for his wife, he had taken only a few steps inside the gate before he was knocked down from behind. A plausible theory is that his assailant, familiar with the habits of Wong Bat, lay in waiting just inside the fence.

A "boss Chinaman" and an extensive onion buyer, Wong Bat was a clever business man and enjoyed the confidence of a large following in Chinese circles. He was fairly well known throughout the Kelowna district, and played an important part last winter in organizing relief for destitute Chinese. About two years ago he married an attractive young Chinese girl from Vancouver, one child, a daughter, resulting from the union. He was about 50 years of age.

A Coroner's inquest was held in the Court Room, Casorso Block, on Wednesday afternoon, Coroner J. F. Burne presiding, but after the jury had viewed the body and visited the scene of the crime and one witness had been heard, an adjournment was made until Friday, at 2 p.m., when further witnesses will be summoned.

The jury was empaneled as follows: Mr. D. Chapman, foreman; Messrs. Claude Newby, K. J. Smith, V. D. Lewis, Earl A. Murchison and Rupert Brown. Mr. T. G. Norris appeared in behalf of relatives of the deceased.

Hop Lee, cousin of the deceased, whose proper name is Wong Chung Ark, stated briefly, with the aid of an interpreter, Wong Sammy, that he last saw Wong Bat alive in the building next to the Chinese chop suey house on Eli Avenue at 10.30 p.m. on Tuesday. He was called on the following morning, at 6.30, by a Chinese who said that Wong Bat had been killed and that he was lying on the ground. Hop Lee went to deceased's premises, saw the body and found Mrs. Wong Bat crying. Before the police arrived it started to rain, so he had the body covered and waited until the police came. No one touched the body, he said, except deceased's wife.

It is understood that funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, pending the return to the city of Mar Jok, proprietor of the Golden Pheasant Cafe, a close friend of the deceased, who is away on a hunting trip. Wong Bat was a shareholder in the Golden Pheasant Cafe.

TRAVELLING GAVEL REACHES KELOWNA

Symbol Of I.O.O.F. Friendship Arrives At Same Time As Grand Secretary

Tuesday was in the nature of a red-letter day for local Oddfellows. It marked the occasion of the annual visit of Brother E. L. Webber, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia and General Scribe of the Grand Encampment of B.C., who visited the local lodge in the evening.

Pentiction Lodge No. 51 also chose Tuesday evening for a visit, and they brought with them and presented to Noble Grand George Sutherland the Travelling Gavel. Quite a number of Summerland members joined the Pentiction contingent and increased the number of visitors from the south to about thirty. Members from Vernon were also present, as well as a large turn-out of local members.

The Travelling Gavel might better be described as an institution or ceremony intended to encourage frequent visits between lodges. It is presented by the Noble Grand of one lodge to the Noble Grand of another as a token of friendship. Each Noble Grand keeps the gavel from two to four weeks and then passes it on to another lodge. With each presentation, a small silver shield is attached recording the date of the presentation and the names of the lodges presenting and receiving it. The local lodge is now planning to present the gavel to Vernon Valley Lodge at Vernon in the near future. Its travels from that time are indefinite.

Brother Webber visited the Vernon Lodge on Wednesday evening. This afternoon he is attending the district convention of Oddfellows' Lodges of the valley at Summerland.

While in the city, Mr. Webber conferred with a committee of the local lodge in connection with arrangements for the 1933 sessions of the Grand Encampment and Grand Lodge of B.C., which meet in Kelowna next June.

KIDDIES HAVE GOOD TIME AT HALLOWEEN PARTY

Games, Dancing And Ample Refreshments Make For Happy Evening

Practically all of the children who attended the twelfth annual Halloween Party sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Boy Scout Association, in the Scout Hall on Monday evening, were youngsters under twelve years of age, only a few of the older children taking part in the fun provided every Halloween for a number of years past by the Ladies' Auxiliary. However, the small children had the time of their young lives, and no better method could have been devised to keep them safely occupied on that night of nights for the kiddies.

While it had been the intention of the committee to award prizes for the best fancy costume in two classes—12 years and under and over 12 years—owing to the fact that only a few exceeded the age of twelve it was decided to group them all in one class and award first and second prizes for best fancy, comic or original costumes. These prizes were distributed as follows:

Best Fancy: 1, "Gypsy," Frances Fairbairn; 2, "Bunny," Robert Terry (3 years old).

Best Comic or Original: 1, "Belle of 1899," Poppy Hoy; 2, "Gollywog," Clifton Hoy.

Best Dennison Paper Costumes (prizes awarded by Mr. J. B. Spurrier): 1, "Lily," Wilma Badley; 2, "Nurse," Lena Zahn.

Many colourful and original costumes were displayed by the kiddies, which made the work of the judges, Mrs. K. MacLaren and Mrs. F. A. Taylor, no easy task. Mrs. Ben Hoy was in charge of the distribution of prizes.

The decorating of the hall, which was appropriately dressed in Halloween colours and presented a gala appearance, and the entertainment features of the evening such as games, etc., were capably supervised by Mrs. H. W. Arbuckle, assisted by Mrs. Herbert. The witches' cauldron was presided over by Mrs. G. A. Meikle.

Dance music was kindly provided by Mr. A. C. Guild, violin, and Mr. Rudy Sigrist, piano.

Refreshments, including an abundance of hot dogs, were served during the evening under the supervision of Mrs. Wyrzykowski. A smaller attendance than usual made individual helpings that much larger, to the manifest delight of the youngsters.

Anyway, the great financiers were great men when there was nothing to do but rake it in and count it.

DAVID MURDOCH ON RETRIAL NEXT WEEK

Murder Case Against Former Kelowna Chief Of Police Likely To Open Monday

David Murdoch, former Chief of Police of Kelowna, charged with having shot and killed Jean Nolan, a burly-haired police informer, in the Mayfair Hotel on January 19th, again faces trial in Assize Court. When the jury failed to reach an agreement after deliberating for six hours at the Spring Assizes, the case was traversed until the Fall Assizes, which open at Vernon on Monday afternoon next, when Mr. Archie M. Johnson, of Victoria, will again handle the Crown prosecution in the Murdoch trial, and Mr. Milton Gonzales, the young Vancouver lawyer who ably defended Murdoch with a strong plea of insanity, will appear for the accused.

Although some of the most important witnesses have removed from British Columbia since spring, all will be recalled. Subpoenas have been issued calling for the appearance in court of witnesses on Monday, November 7th, at 2.30 p.m., and it is probable that the Murdoch trial will be proceeded with that afternoon. It is understood that two other cases will be tried at the Assizes—that of men who were recently committed for trial for safe-blowing at Vernon and a case involving a statutory offence committed at Pentiction.

Important witnesses to be recalled from Lethbridge, Alberta, are Rev. A. K. McMinn, former pastor of First United Church, and Mrs. McMinn, both of whom lent strong support to the insanity plea of the defence by their testimony in the spring. Another important witness, James W. H. Aberdeen, who saw the shooting, is being recalled from the prairies.

The following witnesses were called by the prosecution at the trial in June: Nick Bousch, of the Travellers Cafe, Kelowna; Mrs. Florabell Baptist, of Peachland; Mrs. Irene Clerighew, a resident of Kelowna at the time of the murder; Rudolph Sigrist, of Kelowna; Alex. Purvis, clerk at the Mayfair Hotel when the shooting occurred; James Aberdeen, who was a guest at the hotel at the time; Mrs. Florence Jackson, of the Mayfair Hotel; Dr. J. G. McKay, of Vancouver, provincial government mental examiner.

For the defence, the following witnesses were heard: Dr. A. S. Underhill, Kelowna; Constable Sands, former Kelowna police officer, now at Nanaimo; Mrs. Murdoch, wife of the accused; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stubbs, of Kelowna; Lt.-Col. L. A. deVic Carey, now at Arthur Lake; Rev. A. K. McMinn and Mrs. McMinn, of Lethbridge, Alta.; Corporal O'Reilly, who was stationed at Pentiction at the time of the murder; Inspector Mead, head of the R.C.M.P. Criminal Investigation Department, Vancouver; Dr. W. A. Dobson, psychiatrist, of Vancouver, who stated that Murdoch was undoubtedly suffering from paranoia, a mental disease which causes the delusion of personal persecution such as Murdoch suffered from.

No Grand Jury will be empaneled this fall as a result of legislation effecting their abolishment. Of the forty-eight petty jurors summoned, twenty have been selected from the South Okanagan. They are: Mrs. Phyllis Buden, Kelowna; Mr. W. R. Barlee, Vancouver; Mr. J. M. Bailey, Joe Rich Valley; Mr. John V. Ablett, Kelowna; Mr. Reginald F. Weddell, Kelowna; Mr. Jeremiah Clark, Winfield; Messrs. Samuel Angrove, Edward S. Lewers and John Towgood, Summerland; Messrs. Clarence R. Adams and Ivor B. Barnes, West Summerland; Mrs. Charlotte Sims and Mr. Wilson Hunt, Pentiction; Messrs. A. E. Ruffe, Ben F. Gummow, George Dill, Ezra Baptist, Norman V. Bradbury, Roscoe E. Law and Reynolds C. Harrington, of Peachland.

Provincial Constable W. J. Butler, of this city, leaves today for Oakalla to escort Murdoch to Vernon.

SWEDISH PRINCESS LEAVES ENGLAND

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Princess Ingrid of Sweden left Croxson airdrome for Brussels by plane today after a brief stay in England as the guest of the Earl of Athlone. Rumours of engagement of the Princess to Prince George, third son of the King, or to the Prince of Wales, were discounted in official circles today.

TWO ARE CHARGED WITH SHOBBREAKING

One Man Pleads Guilty And Is Remanded For Sentence

Two men, George Buchanan and Frank Longstaff, charged with breaking and entering the Bestway Groceteria, corner of Bernard Avenue and Ellis Street, on the night of October 20th, when a quantity of groceries, cigarettes and tobacco was stolen, were arraigned in Police Court this morning.

Buchanan, who was apprehended on the night of the robbery by Provincial Police, assisted by Mr. Playden, patrolman in the packing house area, pleaded guilty of the charge and was remanded for sentence.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Farrow, proprietor of the Bestway Groceteria, who is an important witness in the case, Longstaff, Buchanan's alleged accomplice, was remanded until Monday, when it is expected that Mr. Farrow will be able to appear to testify. Longstaff is being defended by Mr. T. G. Norris, K.C.

VARIETIES OTHER THAN MCINTOSH MOVE OUT

Considerable Increase Shown In Shipments Of Winter Apples

The latest statement issued by the 1932 Apple Cartel shows only a very slight change in the total of McIntosh shipments, owing to the limit of forty-five per cent of the tonnage for the domestic market having nearly been reached and the balance being due, under the Cartel agreement, for export or to go into storage. Shipments up to October 25th, inclusive, totalled 836,703 boxes, and up to Nov. 1st, inclusive, 849,412 boxes, or 69.4 per cent of the total crop. ## BUSINESS VERY QUIET ON PRAIRIES

Fruit Jobbers In The Doldrums—Heavy Snowfall Holds Up Threshing In Alberta

(Special Market Letter from J. A. Grant, Provincial Markets Representative.)

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 31, 1932.

British Prices For Apples

The following cablegram has been received from Mr. T. G. Coventry, Markets Representative in Great Britain:

"Private treaty prices, London: Cox, 12s. to 14s.; Jonathan, 12s. to 14s.; McIntosh, 10s. to 12s., according to grade. Auctions, London: California Newtown, Fancy, 10s. Auctions, Liverpool: Oregon Newtown, 12s. to 13s. 6d.; B. C. McIntosh, 8s. 9d. to 9s. 6d., according to grade."

Calgary, Oct. 29

Business during the past ten days has been extremely quiet. A feeling of deep depression pervades fruit jobbers generally. To make matters worse, a snow storm of almost blizzard-like proportions covered Alberta Thursday. This threatens to hold up threshing indefinitely and, as over 50 per cent is still to be completed north of Calgary, country business in that territory does not hold a great deal of promise.

Bulk McIntosh still arriving in over-ripe and badly bruised condition. Jobbers turning to Jonathan, Wagner, Grimes and Winter Banana for bulk supplies. Strange to say, the latter two light skinned varieties are arriving almost totally free from skin blemishes. The southern Alberta potato situation looks as though it may develop into a scramble by shippers for supplies. Some shippers early committed themselves for a few cars at $8.00 F.O.B. These orders, of course, will have to be filled, possibly with shippers assuming heavy losses. One of the large shippers has already raised his quotation to $12.00 F.O.B. and others are bound to follow. Numerous orders and enquiries are being received from Winnipeg and other prairie points, and a steadily advancing market may be anticipated.

Car arrivals, Oct. 22nd to 28th, inclusive.

TRADE TREATY CAN BE VOIDED WITHIN FIVE YEARS

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The House of Commons proceeded today with the debate on the Ottawa trade agreements, assured that passage of the act of ratification would not pledge the country irrevocably to carry out its provisions for the next five years. The impossibility of tying the United Kingdom to the tariff stipulations of the pact was admitted when Leslie Hore-Belisha, Financial Secretary of the Treasury, told the House that "at any time this Act of Parliament can be repealed by another Parliament."

The question arose during a debate in committee upon Clause 111 of the British-Canadian agreement, which provides that certain ad valorem duties shall not be reduced without the consent of the Canadian government. The question of preference for Canadian wheat came up again, and the government reiterated its stand that only wheat shipped from Canadian ports, or consigned direct to the United Kingdom via the United States, will enjoy the preference of six cents a bushel.

ALMSHOUSE INMATES LATEST TO RIOT

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Sixteen men have been arrested in connection with a disturbance yesterday at the London County Alms House, an aftermath of the "Hunger March." Inmates state that the demonstration was a protest against the quality of the food. The majority of the hunger marchers have left London.

NIGHT TRAIN FROM PENTICTON TO VANCOUVER

C.P.R. Makes Radical Change In Schedule Of Kootenay Express

VANCOUVER, Nov. 2.—The saving of a complete business day in travel between Pentiction and Vancouver is the Canadian Pacific Railway's new offer to the travelling public to and from the Coast and the Okanagan Valley by revision of its schedule on Train No. 11, the Kootenay Express, which, commencing Sunday, November 6th, and running daily thereafter, will leave Nelson at 8.00 a.m. instead of 7.40 p.m., making a night run from Pentiction to Vancouver. This train will leave Pentiction at 8.50 p.m. daily and South Pentiction twenty minutes later, arriving at Vancouver at 8.15 a.m. the following day. Vancouver-bound passengers from Okanagan Lake points such as Kelowna can connect either at Pentiction or via Summerland and West Summerland.

Train No. 12, the Kettle Valley Express, now leaving Vancouver at 7.00 p.m. daily, will leave Vancouver at 7.15 p.m. under the new schedule. Connection is made possible every day except Sunday at Summerland for passengers to Kelowna and other Okanagan Lake points. This train will arrive at West Summerland at 7.07 a.m., Pentiction at 7.45 a.m. and Nelson at 9.25 p.m.

Both trains will carry through standard sleepers and cafe parlour cars between Vancouver and Nelson in each direction, so that passengers for Kelowna and other Interior points may secure dinner on the train leaving the Coast and breakfast on the C. P. R. steamer "Sicamous" the following morning. Passengers travelling to the Coast may obtain their evening meal on the "Sicamous" and the morning meal on the train prior to arrival in Vancouver at 8.15 a.m.

The changes in the schedule of the Kettle Valley west-bound train will result in speedier delivery of mail from Okanagan points to Vancouver. Letters mailed at the Kelowna Post Office not later than 3.25 p.m. will go to Pentiction on the "Sicamous" and will reach Vancouver the following morning.

(Later)

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—Hon. E. B. Ryckman, Minister of National Revenue, introduced a bill in the House of Commons today to reduce the excise duty on cigarettes and liquors, bringing these taxes into line with the tariff changes of the British-Canadian trade treaty.

LISTS ALREADY CLOSED FOR BRITISH LOAN

LONDON, Nov. 3.—So great was the rush of money for investment in the new £300,000,000 three per cent conversion loan that the subscription lists were closed at noon today instead of remaining open all day, as originally planned. The loan is the final step in the government's war loan conversion scheme begun last June, by which the Treasury saves about £35,000,000 annually in interest.

FRUIT INDUSTRY AND IMPERIAL PREFERENCE

Member For Yale Speaks In Hearty Support Of Trade Treaty With Great Britain

Speaking in the House of Commons at Ottawa on October 20th and 21st, Mr. Grote Stirling, M.P. for Yale, ably supported, on behalf of the fruit industry, the provisions of the trade treaty between Canada and Great Britain. The full text of his speech is reprinted herewith from Hansard.

On Monday afternoon the House listened for nearly four hours to the right hon. leader of the Opposition (Mr. Mackenzie King) as he exposed his views with regard to world trade, the history of Canada's relations thereto, and the treaty. As the cloud of words rose and as hour succeeded hour I waited with what patience I could, realizing that eventually scolding would probably give place to a definite statement of the right hon. gentleman's reasons for opposing this treaty. Freer trade it is mutually agreed is desirable, but in the opinion of the right hon. gentleman this treaty is not at all the way to go about it, if we wish to attain it. The statements which the right hon. gentleman made would appear to me to require such a very great deal of study before they could be accepted as facts by his listeners that I desire to draw attention to one or two of them.

Some years ago the right hon. gentleman searched Canada most diligently to find combines and monopolies so that he might proceed against them. In his speech the other day he alluded once more to combines, linking them up in some way with the Tories who were present at the conference at Ottawa. He said that there had been a Tory conspiracy. It is well-known that the delegates who were here for the conference were the appointed representatives of certain governments in the Empire—the government of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, of Mr. De Valera, of General Hertzog, of Mr. Forbes—so I think the right hon. gentleman will have to afford some further proof of the fact that they could honestly be described as Tories before the intelligent public will accept his statements as fact.

There was another statement which came a good deal earlier in his speech to which I also want to draw attention. At page 282 of Hansard the right hon. gentleman is reported as saying: "The Liberal party has always advocated greater freedom of trade."

With that I do not think there can be any disagreement. He goes on: "When it has advocated a tariff, it has been a tariff for revenue, protection being only incidental."

Fight Of Fruit Industry For Aid

Has it not? On most of the occasions when I have intervened in debate in this House since 1924 it has been for the purpose of putting forward the views and aspirations of agricultural producers, principally of those engaged in the production of vegetables and fruit. I have endeavoured to put before the House certain opinions which are strongly held by the fruit growers, and to argue that surely it would be wise to give the fruit grower such assistance as may be necessary to enable him to market his produce within Canada so long as he has produced fit for that market. That industry might perhaps be described as one of the minor industries of Canada, yet it affects five provinces and a score or two of constituencies. In that long fight, the dogged fight that the fruit growers carried on throughout the regime of the right hon. gentleman, they endeavoured to point out that without the assistance of some special tariff arrangement it would be extremely difficult for them to continue operations. The right hon. gentlemen's principles stood in the way. He would not agree to the collection of a special duty which would stop dumping. His principles prevented him taking the action suggested. But the principles of the Liberal party did not prevent a Liberal minister from inserting a dumping clause in the customs tariff, nor did Liberal principles prevent another Liberal minister from amending the Customs Act to provide machinery to enable the dumping clause to be put into effect. Their principles became a nuisance to them only when they were asked to operate that machinery.

Further than that, when a government of protectionist views intervened (Continued on Page 6)

Local Scouts and their friends will be interested to know that Vernon has now formed a second Group, consisting of the 2nd Troop of Scouts and 2nd Pack of Wolf Cubs, which is being sponsored by the Anglican Church.
They will hold their rallies at the Parish Hall belonging to that Church. Mr.
O. P. Roberts, District Road Engineer,
is Chairman of the Group, Mrs. J. F.
Walker, Secretary, and Mrs. R. Peters of the committee. The new Scoutmaster is to be Mr. Noel Gillespie and he will have as his assistant former Patrol Leader Saxon Peters. The new Cubmaster will be Mr. L. R. H.
Nash and he will have as his assistant former Patrol Leader Colin Lefroy.
Mr. Gillespie is working at nights for the present and our former Cubmaster, H. G. Bartholomew, is carrying on with his work temporarily.

While the new Troop and Pack are being sponsored by the Anglican Church, they will of course take all comers, and about twelve of the Scouts
from the 1st Troop have been transferred as a nucleus.

The objective of the new Troop is three patrols of eight with a Troop Leader, Secretary, Instructor, one Assistant Scoutmaster, and the Scoutmaster, a total of twenty-nine. The Secretary is a former Summerland
Scout, Mr. Ivor Solly. The 1st Troop is limiting its strength to its present membership, four patrols of seven, with a Troop leader, a Scoutmaster, one Assistant Scoutmaster, a Secretary,
a Librarian, and two Instructors, or a total of thirty-five. They have established a waiting list for Scouts in excess of this number who wish to make application as recruits.

It will indeed be interesting to follow
the scheme now being introduced by Vernon. We welcome the new Troop and Pack into the District and we wish them the best of luck and good Scouting.

At the basketball practice on Friday
we were glad to welcome a few visitors from the 1st Rutland Troop. For the first game three of the visitors with two of the local Troop managed to beat another team composed of five of the locals by a close score, and in the second game two teams were chosen from all the Scouts present, the result of which we cannot at the moment recall.
We hope to meet more of the Rutland Scouts on the basketball floor during the season.

ALL-STAR CAST IN DRAMA OF INTRIGUE

Group Of Well-Known Players In
"The Night Of June 13"

The vogue for all-star casts in movies continues.

"The Night of June 13," drama of intrigue in a large city suburb, which comes to the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday, is the latest effort out of Hollywood to boast a group of big names in its cast. Clive Brook, Lila
Lee, Charlie Ruggles, Gene Raymond,
Frances Dee, Mary Boland and Adri-
anne Allen have the leading roles.

Brook has been in pictures since 1919; Miss Lee, who retired from pictures two years ago because of ill health, is back on the road to stardom;
Ruggles, stage favourite of many years standing, has won a permanent place in the films; Raymond, former stage sensation; is fast becoming popular in the movies; Miss Boland is another graduate of the stage; and Miss Dee and Miss Allen have already won fame in the motion picture world.

"Blonde Venus"

Marlene Dietrich's latest starring picture, "Blonde Venus," comes to the theatre on Monday and Tuesday. The picture, directed by Josef von Sternberg, who discovered the glamorous star three years ago and who has been in charge of her four previous English-language films, presents her in the role of a woman who, to save her husband's life, accepts the love of another man.

At first, cold-blooded about the proposition, she soon finds she is in love with her benefactor. Her love for her young son, however, binds her to her husband. When her husband discovers the situation he orders her from their home, and she is compelled to make a decision that leads to a highly dramatic climax.

Herbert Marshall, noted star of the dramatic stage, plays the role of the husband, with Cary Grant, promising young screen player, as the lover.

Tuesday's revival picture presents Charlie Ruggles in that well known and hilarious comedy "Charley's Aunt."

BLACK MAGIC AND VAUDEVILLE

Interesting Programme Promised By Milton H. Scott And His Company

For over twenty years Milton H.
Scott has been perfecting his magic,
illusions and handcraft and shackle
work, and the result is one that proves amusing and at the same time astounding to old and young alike. If you are interested in "Black Magic," when you attend the Oddfellows' Hall next Tuesday go prepared to accept the invitation to go on the stage and see just how much you can find out as to how both tricks and illusions are done. You may rely that you will be treated with courtesy by Mr. Scott and perhaps (?) learn "how it is done." "Sawing a Woman in Two" is Mr. Scott's latest illusion and offers a thrill which invariably sends the audience home thoroughly mystified and at the same time perfectly satisfied with their evening's entertainment.

In addition to the mysterious part of the programme there is some excellent vaudeville, including Sandy McIntyre, the Scottish character comedian who has been favourably likened to Sir Harry Lauder, and Will Fyffe and Donbry and Burlette in "Hits from Musical Comedy."

Milton H. Scott and his International Vaudevillians appear for one night only,
Tuesday, Nov. 8th, in the Oddfellows' Hall.

ous photoplay of American life dispenses more "nifties" than a cat has whiskers, according to advance reports.

The story deals with the toughest of tough "night-life" people in a big city, and carries them from a rough and tumult world to one of honest virtue and small town happiness. George Bancroft will be seen as the star of the production, a swaggering braggart who never knows when he is licked. Wynne Gibson, a cabaret hostess, falls in love with him and sticks through lean years
and good.

READY FOR SCHOOL.

By Barbara B. Brooks.

Rightly begun a battle is half won. This is especially true of a child's life, and a wise mother will make every effort possible to equip her child properly and start his day right.

Watch the children as they start out in the morning, faces and hands scrubbed, hair slick, clothes spick and span, books, tablets and pencils tucked under their arms, apparently fully equipped to attack the new problems that await them in school. But just how many of them are in reality properly equipped? Close observation shows some alert and eager to begin their lessons. Others are listless and uninterested. A few questions may reveal the reason for this difference.

First, are the children starting the day completely refreshed after a good night's rest of ten or eleven hours, with plenty of fresh air while sleeping? The necessity of lots of sleep will be realized if we remember that the body builds while we rest. It is easy to tell when children have had enough rest for early to bed makes it easy to rise.

Next, did the children have time and appetite for a good substantial breakfast that will last them through the morning and give them clear, alert minds? Such a breakfast would include, first of all, fruit or fruit juice to awaken the appetite and furnish vitamins and minerals. Next, it would include cereal and milk for fuel with which to heat and nourish active young minds and bodies, and protein with which to build. Whole wheat toast or a little all-bran added to the cereal will supply roughage so essential to keep body processes regulated and clean and stimulate sluggish systems. Lastly, any child's meal is not complete without a glass of milk or cocoa, for milk is rich in protein and the minerals necessary for the proper formation of teeth and bones.

If yours is a child with little desire to eat in the morning, try tempting his appetite rather than coaxing it. Change his breakfast from day to day by using different fruits, a variety of cereals, and eggs prepared in several ways. It is particularly easy to secure variety in breakfasts just now with the goodly number of fresh fruits on the market.

Ready-to-eat cereals, too, offer many changes. Children like their crisp freshness, and being light and easily digested they do not give a "too-full" feeling. On cold mornings when a warm breakfast is desired, pour hot milk and butter over these cereals. Some fruits are very appetizing when sliced and served with ready-to-eat cereals. Bananas with corn flakes and cream make a particularly attractive dish. With a breakfast planned along these lines a child should have sufficient nourishment for a busy morning at school.

The following breakfasts will adequately supply a child's needs:

Baked Apple in Honey with Cream
 Rice Krispies
 Whole Wheat Toast
 Butter
 Milk
 Wheat Flakes
 with Sliced Bananas
 Poached Egg on Graham Toast
 Milk

NOVEMBER 5

OKANAGAN CENTRE

The annual meeting of the Okanagan Centre Badminton Club was held at the Community Hall on Thursday evening, the 27th inst., with a fairly good number of players in attendance.

The Treasurer's report, showing a balance on hand of $30.00, was read and approved.

The executive of last year was returned to office for another term by acclamation viz., President, Mr. R. W. Wentworth; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Gled; Committee, Mrs. Bernau, Mrs. Hare, Mr. Collinson.

The rent of the Hall having been raised, it was decided to raise the membership fee to $6.50, monthly members to pay $2.00 per month. Several vacancies reported in the membership were immediately filled by Centre residents.

A number of minor resolutions were discussed, among them being one on tournament play, an affirmative vote being taken on confining this to Thursday nights.

In spite of the "depression"—or perhaps because of it (depending on the point of view)—several parcels of real estate in the Centre have changed hands recently. Mr. S. Copeland has acquired the bearing orchard adjoining his ranch on the east—for many years the property of Mrs. Hiestand, and Mr. C. Harrop has bought the house and town lots known as the "Harry Gled" home.

Enthusiastic members of the Tennis Club assembled at the courts on Tuesday morning for a "last day," when an hour's play followed by an extra good lunch in the pavilion at least left a good taste in the mouth. It is presumed that the number attending (13) brought on the rain during the noon hour which finished the season.

It is proposed by the staff and employees at the V.F.U. packing-house here, to top-off a pleasant and successful autumn with an invitation dance at the Community Hall early next week. With a good orchestra from Vernon engaged and an able committee, viz., Mrs. Fallow, Miss MacLennan, Messrs. Dawson and Nuyens, in charge of arrangements, an extra jolly evening is anticipated.

The Hallowe'en party given on Monday evening at the Hall for the children by the Women's Institute was, as usual, a delightful affair. Mrs. Parker, the convener, was ably assisted by Mrs. Bernau, Mrs. Craig and Miss Goldie, all being kept busy arranging games and contests for groups of various ages. The parade of children in fancy costume was most amusing and prizes were awarded to Frank Parker, "Jolly Miller," senior boy; Akira Hikichi, "Japanese Soldier," junior boy; Yoshiko Kobayashi, senior girl; Mary Carter, for the Home-made Costume; Eiko Toda, "Okanagan Apple," junior girl.

The November meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the Community Hall on Thursday, the 10th, when several more of the series of travelogues by members will be given.

GLENMORE

Mr. John Anderson is spending a few weeks in Detroit, where he will visit his daughter. Mr. I. Kerr is taking Mr. Anderson's place in the Sunday School during his absence.

Mrs. A. Morgan and Miss E. Reed returned on Saturday from Lethbridge, where they have spent the past three months.

On Tuesday afternoon the Guild meeting was held at the home of Mrs. T. Ryall, with seventeen ladies present. There was little business to transact, but a social time was enjoyed with Miss Hicks, who is ending her visit here on Saturday, when she leaves for Ireland. Miss Hicks has been guest of honour in several homes during her stay in the valley, where she is a general favourite.

The next meeting of the Guild, which is the annual meeting, will be held at the home of Mrs. Short.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall, with their twin boys, returned on Tuesday from a visit to friends in Seattle and through to Vancouver via Bellingham, returning by the same route. They experienced fine weather on a most enjoyable holiday except on the last lap of the journey Tuesday, when they had continuous rain.

ELLISON

We are glad to see Mr. Len Piddocke back from the Kelowna Hospital. He returned to Ellison last Sunday, and is making good progress to complete recovery.

Miss Ford and Mr. Evans attended the Teachers' Convention in Armstrong on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. They report a very successful convention. School was closed on Friday.

The School is being wired for the lights. Residents are eagerly waiting its completion, as they wish to commence the Friday entertainments.

Orchardists have completed their picking. The B. C. Orchards are closing their packing house at Postville this week. Looks as if another busy season is practically over.

The chicken-pox is believed to be stamped out. The quarantined children are returning to school. No new cases have been reported.

The radio would keep the family home at night if each member had an individual receiving set.

GUILD OF HEALTH

The foundation of all prayers for others is in the inconceivable unity and interdependence of all finite spirits. Recent thought tends more and more to break down the walls which had been thought to shut off rigidly one personality from another. We all live in God, and in an inexplicable way God lives in us. Because of this unity we affect each other in ways known and unknown. "No man liveth unto himself, and no man dieth unto himself." Why then should intercession not have a place in a world where we are thus bound together in the bundle of life? When we pray for others we are seeking to throw ourselves into the Divine intention. If we pray aright, we yield ourselves as instruments for the achievement of God's will to help and heal. It may be and very often it will be, that God uses our personal contact with the person for whom we pray as the vehicle of His healing power. Concentrate on the sick person, not as ailing and miserable, but as he is ideal

"Yes, I know all about it,

REMEMBRANCE

The eleventh day of November having been established by the law of the land as a legal holiday under the title of Remembrance Day, in place of its former unofficial designation as Armistice Day, it behooved all good citizens to abide by the law and to observe the notable anniversary, but a number of the business men of Vancouver, greedy of gain and oblivious of the fact that the day commemorates the sacrifice of sixty thousand of the prime of Canada's manhood upon the altar of liberty, last year sought to evade complete observance by keeping their premises closed for only an hour or so between 11 a.m.
and noon. Employees who had served in the Great War, or whose relatives or friends had yielded their lives in that conflict, were denied, in many cases,
the opportunity to attend special observances, and there was an aftermath of bitter feeling and severe criticism.
Nor was this confined to Vancouver;
it was common to many cities, and the keeping of Remembrance Day was sadly lacking in proportion to its deep significance.

Seeking to bring about a change of heart in those responsible for such callous disregard of sacred memories, the Vancouver Branch of the Amputations'
Association of the Great War, men who all bear an indelible trace of what they suffered for their country, recently passed the following resolution:

"Whereas the Eleventh Day of November is one of the most significant days in the history of the British Empire, and
"Whereas this day has been set apart as Remembrance Day by Dominion statute;
"Therefore be it resolved that we,
the Amputations' Association of the Great War in convention assembled, do pledge ourselves to do all in our power to see that this day shall be sacred in our national life.

"We further pledge ourselves to keep it a day of Remembrance in very truth
—a day on which the Canadian people shall be impressed with the traditions of service and sacrifice established by Canada's noble dead in the Great War.

"And further we appeal to the industrial and commercial life of Canada to follow the splendid example set by Dominion, Provincial and Municipal Governments, by closing down all but necessary work on Remembrance Day, in order that the whole Canadian people—particularly Canada's youth—
may be privileged to associate with war mothers, war widows, war disabled and war veterans.

Lest We Forget!"

It is to be hoped that this resolution, which has been circulated throughout Canada and given wide publicity, will bring about far more general and fitting observance of one of the most notable anniversaries in the history of the world.

Locally, the usual service will be held at the Cenotaph in the City Park,
under the auspices of the Kelowna Branch of the Canadian Legion, at the hour of the armistice. The proceedings will be brief but impressive, and all local organizations, as well as the general public, have been invited by the Legion to participate and to decorate
the war memorial.

On Saturday, November 5th, the ladies of the Legion Auxiliary will sell on the streets the commemorative scarlet poppies, made in the Veterans' Shops

by disabled veterans, the profits of which are applied in their entirety to the relief of veterans who have suffered misfortune, hardship or illness. Conditions throughout the country entail much heavier demands than ordinarily upon the Poppy Day Fund, but there is little doubt that the public of Kelowna will respond to the need with their wonted generosity and that there will be no falling off in the sales of the flowers of Flanders.

VETERAFT POPPIES FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

(By John S. Roper, Dominion President, Canadian Legion of the B.C.S.L.)

If the material steps taken by the organized ex-service men of Canada during the past ten years are worthy of commendation, primarily must come approval of the efforts exerted on behalf of ex-service men handicapped by war disability and particularly those who are unemployable in the ordinary avenues of endeavour. What has been achieved in that respect is very well known in every part of Canada.

To aid these men, who gave that which they cannot recover, Veteraft Shops were established by the Department of Pensions and National Health.
In these shops wreaths and poppies to be used for Remembrance Day are made, and by arrangement with the Department of Pensions and National Health they are distributed throughout Canada by the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League. These men, previous to establishment of the shops, were unemployed, as they are incapable of doing any other kind of work, and they would have been dependent upon local relief.

The facts as to distribution of Vetercraft poppies on Remembrance Day
should be known by the public, so here
they are:

1. All poppies, wreaths, etc., distributed in the Poppy Campaign are manufactured by disabled soldiers in Veteraft Shops, or, in some instances,
by disabled soldiers and their dependents working at home, under the Department of Pensions and National Health.

2. The Canadian Legion has entered into a contract each year since 1926
with the Department to purchase exclusively all the poppies and material necessary for the entire national campaign.

3. The Canadian Legion undertakes annually the distribution of these poppies, wreaths, etc., throughout the whole of the Dominion.

4. The national distribution is carried out through the medium of Canadian Legion Dominion and Provincial Commands, who are charged with the duty to see that, so far as possible, the message of the poppy is carried to all sections, classes and communities in the respective provinces.

5. The prices charged by the Legion consist of cost plus necessary expense entailed in national distribution
plus a reasonable margin to cover risk of loss, for which the Canadian Legion must assume responsibility under its contract with the Department.

6. Any monies remaining in the hands of Dominion or Provincial Commands upon completion of distribution are applied to the maintenance of Canadian Legion service work, which is carried on by the Legion for the benefit of all Canadian ex-service men and women throughout Canada, whether members of the Legion or not.

7. The entire proceeds of the monies contributed by the public for poppies are spent for relief or other essential assistance to ex-service men and women.

8. The task of nation-wide distribution of these sacred emblems is of great magnitude. The twofold objectives—remembrance of the glorious dead and practical assistance to the living—are most worthy. Join with the Legion and

nothing at all, have tried selling vacuum cleaners. I went at it as demonstrator in a big department store,
and I packed one of those dog-gone buzzers over most of the Greater Vancouver area for several weeks. I cleaned up a lot of Vancouver's dirt in good and bad demonstrations until I decided that, as a vacuum cleaner salesman, I was a first-class flop. I stuck to it until I made a corking good cash sale
on a new machine, less the allowance on the trade-in. The latter I sold in a few days at a profit of $14, more than the commission on the new one. Then and there, I patted myself on the back and quit the cleaner business cold.

Somewhat, I have great respect for the dogged determination of the comparative few who make a living at house-to-house canvassing in the larger cities year in and year out. Their daily grind is not a bed of roses, and the verbal socks they take on the chin
are devastating to a more sensitive people.

GOD OF WAR

The futility of war is recalled with the approach of Armistice Day. Fourteen years ago the greatest conflict in world history ended, a bloody game ceased. Today the veterans of that wholesale massacre are wondering what they were fighting for—and countless millions are wondering who, if anybody, won the war.

It is not so much a question of who won as it is which nation lost the most.
Admitting that war and revolution have wiped out evils and injustices and have brought about beneficial reforms;
admitting that, since the dawn of time,
war has been inevitable, it is nevertheless a bloody sacrifice that pays poor dividends on capital.

When diplomacy fails war should be confined to the diplomats. Under this policy the echoes of war drums would fade away for all time. The patriotic shouting and tumult would die and we would be a more civilized people.

Our citizens are warned to beware of counterfeit ten-dollar bills. The bulk of the population remain calm though grateful for the compliment.

MUSICAL RECITAL BY KELOWNA ARTISTES

Music lovers of Kelowna and district will be given the opportunity tomorrow (Friday) evening to hear a piano and violin recital by two of the Okanagan Valley's outstanding instrumental artists, Mrs. A. J. Pritchard, L.R.A.M., A.R.C.M., and Miss Isobel Murray, gifted Kelowna musicians. The recital will be given in the Junior High School Auditorium, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

A varied and highly interesting programme has been arranged. The programme opens with Grieg's Sonata, Op. 13, for piano and violin, followed by pianoforte selections from the works of Schumann and Brahms by Mrs. Pritchard. Another interesting piano group includes three of Chopin's compositions and other delightful classical numbers.

Miss Murray has selected for violin interpretation compositions of Wagner, Bach, Schubert-Kreisler, Schubert, Tchaikovsky, Coleridge-Taylor, Kreisler and others, all appealing to lovers of good music.

Mrs. Florence L. Chittenden received a painful injury on Monday afternoon, when she was struck by a car driven by a local woman. Mrs. Chittenden, who was knocked from the bicycle she was riding near MacDonald's store on Bernard Avenue, received a broken collar bone. The driver of the car, whose name has not been revealed, took the injured lady to the hospital.

Mr. L. A. Murphy, of New Westminster, was a guest of the Rotary Club at their luncheon in the Royal Anne Hotel on Tuesday. At this gathering, which took the form of a business meeting, mention was made of the pianoforte and violin recital to be given by Mrs. A. J. Pritchard and Miss Isobel Murray on Friday evening, and thirty-four tickets were sold in the record time of three minutes.

Under the auspices of the Canadian Legion, the fourteenth annual Armistice Dance will be staged in the I.O.O.F. Temple on Friday evening, November 11th. The proceeds will go to the Legion Relief Fund, and a new feature this year will be a supper provided by the Parent-Teacher Association, for which a small charge will be made. Funds realized from the supper will be devoted to the provision of milk for under-nourished children.

The construction programme of the West Kootenay Power and Light Company in this district has been completed for this year, and the crew of linemen under Mr. Dalgleish has been paid off. The equipment is stored in the building occupied by the company on Lawrence Avenue, where Mr. A. Carlisle, the local manager, will maintain an office. The electric light and power collections have, however, been placed in the hands of the Okanagan Loan & Investment Trust Company, Bernard Avenue, and all payments are made to them.

For gifts of grapes, apples, pears, potatoes, carrots, squash, pumpkins, etc., received as a result of Harvest Thanksgiving services, the Kelowna General Hospital wishes to thank, through the Anglican Children's Service of Offering: Rutland United Church; St. Andrew's Church, Okanagan Mission; St. Michael & All Angels' Church; East Kelowna Anglican Church; Rutland Anglican Guild; St. Margaret's Anglican Church, Winfield; the Anglican Kindergarten School. Thanks are also extended to the Rutland Women's Institute for preserved vegetables.

NEW MINISTER OF FIRST UNITED CHURCH INSTALLED

Rev. W. W. McPherson Installed With Fitting Observances

In the presence of a large congregation, the Rev. W. W. McPherson, M. A., B.D., lately of Weyburn, Sask., was formally inducted to the charge of the First United Church of Kelowna on Tuesday evening, November 1st, with simple but solemn ceremonial. The clergy assisting in the service included Rev. E. W. Mackay, West Summerland, Rev. Dr. J. H. Davies, Vernon, Rev. R. R. Morrison, Penticton, and Rev. A. McMillan, Rutland. There was a full choir under the leadership of Mr. Percy Hook and Mr. W. Murray assisted with his violin in the rendering of an anthem.

The proceedings commenced with the singing of a hymn, followed by Scripture readings by Rev. Mr. Mackay from Psalm 122, St. Matthew, chap. 9, vs. 36, to vs. 10 of chap. 10, and Acts, chap. 20, vs. 28 to 32. Rev. Mr. Morrison offered prayer, and the choir sang an anthem.

Rev. Mr. Mackay, as Moderator of the congregation during the vacancy, recited the steps taken by the Official Board to call a minister, in accordance with the procedure laid down under the rules of the United Church of Canada.

Rev. Mr. McMillan then formally inducted Rev. Mr. McPherson into the ministry of the First United Church, Rev. Messrs. Mackay and Morrison representing the Kamloops-Okanagan Presbytery and Messrs. J. Ball and W. H. Ribelin, the congregation, during the ceremony.

The sermon to the newly inducted minister and the congregation was preached by Rev. Dr. Davies, who took as his theme the relationship between pastor and people from the words of Jesus as found in the 21st Chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, "Feed My sheep."

After the benediction had been pronounced by Rev. Mr. McMillan, all those present were given an opportunity of meeting and welcoming Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson to the community.

The New Minister

The Rev. W. W. McPherson is a native of Scotland, having been born in Glasgow. He migrated to Canada in 1908 and took up mission work in southern Alberta, northern Saskatchewan and in Winnipeg. Entering the University of Manitoba, he graduated as Bachelor of Arts in 1915, and he then proceeded to Columbia University, New York, for a post-graduate course, taking the higher degree of Master of Arts at that institution. He then enrolled at the Union Theological Seminary, New York City, where he graduated as Bachelor of Divinity in 1918. Returning to Canada, he was assistant at St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Winnipeg, from 1918 to 1920, when he received a call to Westminster Church, Saskatoon, a charge which he occupied until 1928, when another call translated him to Weyburn, and from Weyburn he was called to Kelowna.

Members of all denominations unite in welcoming Rev. Mr. McPherson and Mrs. McPherson to Kelowna and in wishing for him much success and happiness in his ministry here.

ANOTHER ROMANCE BROKEN

Because they are both too "interested in their respective careers," the romance of Adolphe Menjou, debonair "man of the world" for the movies, and his wife, Kathryn Carver (seen here), have agreed to part. The separation is to be one of those "amicable ones" that have become so popular of late.

RECORD SUGAR BEET CROP

The largest crop on record, the yield of sugar beets grown this year in the province of Alberta, Canada, is estimated at nearly 130,000 tons, from which about 36,000,000 pounds of sugar will be produced with several hundred tons of molasses.

Almost one-fourth of the accidents injuring the eyes of children are caused by fireworks.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the files of "The Kelowna Courier"

Thursday, October 31, 1912

"Local fruit shippers were seriously inconvenienced last week by a shortage of cars, and one firm had an order for two carloads of fruit cancelled owing to their being unable to make speedy shipment. Conditions are better this week, but the Canadian Northern cannot come any too soon."

"Several local Greeks have received a call to arms from their native land, and some will probably leave shortly to join their comrades who are concentrating in all of the big cities of Canada and the United States before leaving for Greece."

"During Tuesday and Wednesday, the city was thronged with Indians returning from the Coldstream hop yards to their reservation in Washington. Some weird and wonderful costumes were in evidence, and many of the visitors collected a quantity of pin money by disposing of beaded gloves, moccasins, hat bands and other Indian products. The ferry service to Westbank was kept very busy for a couple of days."

"Work commenced this week on the foundations of the garage and machine shop to be erected by the Kelowna Garage and Machine Works, Ltd. The site selected is on Lawrence Avenue, east of Collett Bros' livery stable, and the building which will be of brick on a concrete base and one story high, will be a very large one, measuring 75 feet frontage by 120 feet depth. The contractor, Mr. Geo. E. Ritchie, has the contract. The mason work is being carried out by The Clement-Riggs, Ltd."

"Chicken thieves have been very prevalent in the city of late, and the outlying districts have also suffered from the two-legged marauders. Last Sunday, in the 'wee, wee' hours, Mr. Wm. Blackwood, the proprietor of Mount View Poultry Ranch, heard a suspicious noise in the hen house and arrived on the scene just in time to see the thief hastily leaving with a sack full of chickens in his grasp. A charge of No. 7 bird shot elicited a yelp of pain from the prowler, who dropped his spoils and, aided by the darkness, was soon out of sight. Mr. Blackwood is considering the advisability of using buckshot next time."

"The Spinsters' fancy dress ball, held in the Opera House last night, was very largely attended, nearly two hundred people being present, practically all of whom wore fancy costumes. Excellent music was provided by Mr. T. Boyd, and dancing was kept up until after 3 a.m. Many of the costumes showed much originality of design, and the judges had a hard task, finally awarding the prizes as follows: Ladies—1, Miss Clark, Shamrock; 2, Miss Winter, Autumn; Gentlemen—1, Dr. Shepherd, Knight in Armour; 2, H. Willis, Player's Navy Cut Cigarettes."

"The first Okanagan Valley Apple Show was held at Vernon on Wednesday and Thursday last and proved a decided success, although the display was not as representative of the whole valley as it should have been, probably because the handling of this season's large crop is engaging the available time of packers and shippers. Altogether, about 1,150 boxes and 600 plates were shown. The Skating Rink was utilized for the exhibition, which was opened by Sir Richard McBride. "The total quantity of fruit on exhibition from Kelowna amounted to only about 100 boxes, and no entry was made from here in the Commercial District Exhibit, in which South Vernon took first place, followed by Penticton, Board of Trade, second, and Vernon Board of Trade, third. "Prize-winners in the Kelowna district included Messrs. W. D. Hobson, H. B. Burtch, G. K. Salvage, J. Conlin, A. H. S. Wright, E. Dart, O. Dendy, W. Crichton Spencer, C. H. Geen, A. H. Crichton and the Bankhead Orchard Co."

"Twenty-five members of the Vancouver Board of Trade paid a short visit to Kelowna on October 24th. They visited the packing houses of Stirling & Pitcairn and the Farmers' Exchange, witnessing the methods of grading and packing apples, the plant of the Kelowna Canning Co., and the cigar factory of the British North American Tobacco Co., and expressed themselves as very much impressed and pleased with the extent of the industries inspected."

With a double shoot on Monday, October 28th, Thanksgiving Day, the Rifle Association wound up the shooting season of 1912. The 200, 500 and 600 yards distances were fired over in the morning and again in the afternoon, resuming at the 600 and firing the ranges in reverse order so as to get the best available light at the longer distances. A. L. Meugens, with 95, headed the morning aggregate, followed by D. D. L. with 94, T. Allan, 94, W. E. Emerton, 92, and the others below 90. In the afternoon, Allan and Lloyd again tied, with the fine total of 98 each. Meugens came next, repeating his morning performance of 95. Emerton scored 94 and F. L. Davis, 90. Lloyd and Allan shot off the tie for the grand aggregate, Allan winning by one point.

A liberal supply of prizes, donated by Kelowna business men, provided one or more awards for every competitor. The shoot also decided the competition for silver medals offered by the Association for the best four aggregates over the three ranges, made with the government issue of ammunition. The medal for the class using any rifles was won by T. Allan with 98, 96, 94, 91—total, 379; average 94.75. The runner-up was A. L. Meugens, with 95, 95, 87, 74—total, 351; average 87.75. In the class for competitors using the ordinary rack Ross, Mark II, with open sights, G. M. Kennedy took first place with 85, 85, 85, 82—total, 337; average, 84.25. The medal for new in office for a few months, the present Minister of Trade and Commerce (Mr. Stevens) promptly put that Liberal machinery into action and the fruit grower immediately felt the benefit. Nor can it be shown, despite the oft-repeated views of the hon. member for Weyburn (Mr. Young), that the Canadian consumer suffered one whit thereby. But when the Liberal government returned to office shortly after, its principles again did not stand in the way of its retaining that machinery in action, and for a year and a half, through two shipping seasons, the fruit grower had the assistance of that machinery. Then came the inevitable explosion which must always occur sooner or later in so composite a party as that which my right hon. friend leads, and the Orders-in-Council were swept away, dumping from a foreign country was resumed, bang went the trade affiliations which had grown up in those few years, and the fruit growers once more slid into a depression—a depression caused by the Liberal government.

The 1930 Tariff Proposals

In 1930, however, it was necessary that a preselection budget should be prepared, a budget which should contain something for everybody, a budget which might be likened to a chart to be used by Liberal navigators in the waters of the election, with parts of which they would be able to satisfy the requirements of the farmer, with other parts of which they would be able to convince the industrialist that the Liberal party had every safeguard to navigation which they would need. I should like to draw the attention of the House to the fact that, if they wish to examine the 1930 budget as it was presented to the House, it will be quite useless for them to look at Hansard, because they will not find it. I had always thought that Hansard was the authentic record of the proceedings of this House, but inquiry which I made revealed the fact that under the late administration this was no longer the case. I had understood that revised Hansard was an accurate record of the proceedings of this House, with grammatical errors corrected and slips of speech removed. But if hon. members turn up the Hansard of that day they will find that on May 1 the ex-Minister of Finance, Mr. Dunning, made his budget speech. Turning to items of the tariff they will find that they are not the items as they were introduced by the then Minister of Finance, but the items as they were amended. It seems to me in this particular case the more stupid, because, quoting three lines from the minister's speech I read: "Seamless wire, for instance, are not applicable to a country such as Canada, with its extremes of distance, latitude and climate." But when you turn over the pages to the items to which I have referred you will find that ten of the items out of fourteen, dealing with vegetables and six of the items out of nine dealing with fruit describe what the new tariff is to be, taking in seasonal tariffs. I do not object for one moment to the principle of seasonal tariffs being adopted, but it seems to me ridiculous so to change Hansard that when you wish to look up the official record it is not to be found in the pages of Hansard.

Liberal Leader Objects

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: Does my hon. friend seek to imply that Hansard has been deliberately changed by any member of parliament? Mr. STIRLING: I am not endeavoring, Mr. Speaker, to suggest anything which should be described as erroneous. I have already said, if the right hon. gentleman had listened to me, that when I made inquiries from the officials of the House I was informed that during the regime of the right hon. gentleman the method had been altered and this one adopted. Mr. MACKENZIE KING: I hope there will be no misunderstanding. I cannot imagine that in any particular Hansard would be other than a record as taken down by Hansard reporters. I think the votes and proceedings of the House will always show in exactly what form the budget is introduced. If during the course of the debate items are amended it is quite conceivable that only the final action of the House will be reported in Hansard. If what my hon. friend is indicating is that there was a change before the final— Mr. STIRLING: Is this a point of order?

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: If the Minister of Trade and Commerce objects, I shall say nothing further. I am trying to ask whether it is suggested that in certain respects the procedure has been erroneous. Surely the Minister of Trade and Commerce is as much interested as anyone in having a correct record in Hansard.

Mr. STIRLING: I trust I shall be allowed a few minutes extension of time.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: I hope, Mr. Speaker, you will see that the hon. gentleman gets it. My purpose was not to interrupt my hon. friend; I have always had the greatest regard for his desire for accuracy and his wish to avoid anything in the nature of insinuation.

Mr. STIRLING: I assure the right hon. gentleman I am not dealing with (Continued on Page 7)

OKANAGAN MISSION

Since the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Ross and their family, there have been several departures from the Mission.

On October 18th, Mrs. Francis, Miss Dyles and Joyce Francis left in Mrs. Francis' car, driven by Mr. J. Colebrook, en route for New York, whence all four will take boat to England. They plan to return in the spring in the same way.

On the same day, Miss Alcia Ivens left by car to return to her post at Trail.

On Friday, October 28th, Mrs. Hobson and her two sons left to spend the winter months in the Old Country. They are travelling by the Panama route. During their absence their house is occupied by Mr. Robinson, of the K.G.E., and his family, who have rented it for the winter season.

Miss Stainer, who has paid a long visit to her relatives, the Mallams, left for England about a week ago.

Owing to the wet weather, which made it impracticable for Rev. C. E. Davis to visit Joe Rich Valley on October 23rd as planned, the children's service here was hurriedly arranged to take place on that Sunday instead. In spite of the short notice, there was a good attendance of both children and adults, the children bringing gifts of fruit or food to be sent to the Hospital.

On October 25th, Dr. Ootmar and Mrs. Grindon held a Baby Clinic at the Bellevue Hotel.

Mr. Fred Small was successful in bringing home a buck the other day. Many pheasants have fallen to the local guns recently.

On the night of Hallowe'en, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller received news of the safe arrival of a baby son to their eldest daughter, Mrs. "Budge" Barlow.

Some of the local youths, taking advantage of a dark night, amused themselves by removing a few gates and disarranging property—chiefly on the School premises—on Hallowe'en Night.

On Tuesday last, the Women's Institute met at Mrs. Johns'. In spite of a thoroughly wet afternoon, a dozen members turned up, and various matters were vigorously discussed.

The proposal to hold a class organized under the Night School Act during this winter was turned down. On further consideration, it was decided that circumstances did not require the formation of a local Relief Committee.

It was decided to hold a chicken supper shortly, and to arrange for a programme, including a lecturer, to follow the supper, and a dance to conclude the evening. Date and all particulars will be advertised shortly. After this event, it is planned to hold a card party for bridge and whist players, also to be held this side of Christmas.

Mrs. M. T. Luckett, who has been very lame for months past, was the recipient of a "shower" of jam and bottled fruit from her fellow members of the Institute.

RUTLAND

The usual Hallowe'en pranks were played on Monday evening, mostly harmless, although one or two incidents have been reported of jokes the humour of which is not so evident, damage to fences and placing of obstructions across the road, endangering cars, being amongst these. Several houses were the scenes of enjoyable parties for the young people of the district, notably those held at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, and Mr. and Mrs. Axel Eutin.

The Trustees of the Irrigation District at a recent meeting rescinded a resolution passed a year ago reserving employment on the system to water users who were in arrears with their taxes and tolls. Henceforth employment will be given to any water user capable of doing the work required, without regard to whether the applicant may be in arrears with taxes or not.

The local branch of the Kelowna Growers Exchange expect to complete packing operations by the end of this week.

On Thursday evening last Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher's home was the scene of a largely attended "shower" in honour of Mrs. Judd Ribelin, nee Miss Dorothy Meek, granddaughter of Mrs. Wm. Gay of this district. Although formerly resident with her parents in Vancouver and now living in Vernon, Mrs. Ribelin is well known and liked by the young people of Rutland, having spent many summers visiting her relatives here.

The annual meeting of the Badminton Society was held in the Community Hall on Tuesday evening of last week, about fifteen or twenty members attending. Mr. Earl Hardie was re-elected

KELOWNA THRIFT DAYS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 18 AND 19

Thrift, by story and tradition, the outstanding national attribute of the Scot, a characteristic sneered at and derided in times of plenty by the prodigal and spendthrift, has come, in these days of depression, to be more than a virtue—it is now a prime necessity for the preservation of a reasonable degree of comfort and decent living.

¶ The provident of both sexes will see to it that their cellar shelves are well stocked with food, preserves and vegetables, that there is ample bedding to provide comfort for all the family at night, fuel to keep the home at a wholesome temperature during the day and a sufficiency of warm clothing for all when exposed to winter weather. Stoves and pipes, furnaces and other heating appliances will be examined carefully to see that all is in order, and the whole equipment of the house will be overhauled and all deficiencies made good.

¶ In all this prudent work the housewife and her good man can count upon the co-operation of the merchants of Kelowna, who, for two days, will cater to their varied wants at special prices for a wide choice of necessary articles, whether it be food, clothing or household requirements.

memorandum. What I desire to direct attention to is the fact that Parliament of May 1, 1930 the day on which the budget was brought down, does not contain printed in its pages the budget as brought down.

Mr. STEVENS: Hear, hear; and it ought to.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: I hope my hon. friend will make some charge that can be investigated. He has the machinery of government in his hands; let him do it.

Mr. STEVENS: It is not a question of a charge; it is a question of the accuracy of the record.

Mr. STIRLING: The point I am endeavoring to make, Mr. Speaker, is that those features which were introduced in the budget unquestionably contained the principle of protection. I think that is more evident if one reads the next few words from the speech of the minister, remembering that the right hon. gentleman has told the House that the Liberal party never advocated protection. The former Minister of Finance said:

"After careful study of the situation from all angles, we have decided to apply to fruits and vegetables a combination of specific and ad valorem duties; this combination will, it is believed, meet the urgent need of the growers during those periods when they suffer from acute instability of prices and, at the same time, guarantee to consumers, at all seasons of the year, supplies of these products at reasonable prices."

The right hon. gentleman said:

"When it has advocated a tariff it has been a tariff for revenue."

Is that a tariff for revenue?

"protection being only incidental."

Was that incidental?

"The Liberal party has never advocated protection."

Hon. members who were in the House at the time will readily recall the difficulty in which the former Minister of Finance found himself when a certain section of his supporters found themselves unable to support that budget. Hon. gentlemen will recall also the very easy expedient which he adopted in order to get out of his difficulty, how his recalcitrant followers went into a room with representatives of the vegetable and fruit growers and were asked by the minister to hatch out a compromise which he would insert in his budget. Having done that, the budget was brought down containing these features of protection, and his recalcitrant supporters found themselves in the difficult position of either accepting a pretty considerable dose of protection or voting against the budget. Consistency may be a jewel, Mr. Speaker, but certainly it does not sparkle conspicuously on the hand of the right hon. gentleman.

"During the earlier part of the fight which the fruit growers waged, though they received no assistance from the Canadian government, a ray of hope did appear. The government of the United Kingdom decided to bring forward for the approval of the parliament at Westminster a series of duties on certain imports, from which dominion products should be exempt. If my memory serves me aright, there were ten or twelve of those items, and the eighth one referred to apples. It was suggested that there should be a duty and a preference of five shillings per hundredweight of 112 pounds on apples entering the United Kingdom. When parliament proceeded to debate the resolution the government, finding itself in rather deep water, decided not to proceed beyond the first few items, and for that time at least no more was heard of that preference, which would have been of such great assistance to the fruit growers of the dominions. Hon. members can realize, then, with what satisfaction they greet the news that this government has succeeded in arranging the United Kingdom has again agreed to a duty of 4s. 6d. per hundredweight, our produce being exempt. When the fruit growers of Canada realize that they are receiving assistance of this description, as they scan the other provisions of the treaty it will make them the more ready to accept this agreement as one which in all probability will be of assistance to other industries. They know full well that, if those other industries prosper, there is likely to be a larger market for their own products.

Having reached this stage in my remarks, Mr. Speaker, I would be very grateful if you would call it eleven o'clock, and I move the adjournment of the debate.

Motion agreed to and debate adjourned.

(October 21st)

When adjournment intervened last evening, I was referring to the duty imposed by the United Kingdom of four shillings and sixpence on apples, and I was suggesting that I could not understand the mentality of any fruit grower or of any spokesman of fruit growers who would be unable or unwilling to support the provisions of the treaty. I read with some interest the remarks of the hon. member for Shelburne-Yarmouth (Mr. Ralston), the rather slighting remarks which he made yesterday, and I realized that he was indulging once more in the hair-splitting which he so gloatingly enjoys. I wonder whether the apple grower in Nova Scotia would not be pleased and relieved if the hon. member in question would be man enough frankly to admit the benefit. Whoever suggested that Canada alone was going to benefit by these provisions? Are we not members of the Empire, and was not the whole spirit of the conference, the intent which filled each delegate, that something would be accomplished which would be of benefit in its every part? All the time, ever since a suggested preference in the United Kingdom was mooted, we have known the attitude of the grower in the United Kingdom. He knows that he is not able to fulfil the needs of that market. He knows that South Africa, New Zealand and Australia ship their product at such times as will not conflict with his sale, and whilst he knows that the Canadian apple harvest synchronizes with his, and remembering that he is unable to supply the full quantity required, he would prefer to see Canadian apples fill the need rather than those of the United States. I think it is generally known to hon. members that Canada exports her apples both in barrels and boxes. Canadian statistics are based on barrels, with a fraction of over three boxes being considered as one barrel. Nova Scotia exports in barrels while British Columbia exports in boxes, but these two methods of export do not conflict one with the other.

British Growers Complainant

During the negotiations prior to the adoption of this treaty the fruit representatives of the United Kingdom required to be shown to what extent the dominions could supply their needs. I should like to give the House a few figures based upon the average for the last five years and expressed in barrels. The United Kingdom approached the problem in this fashion: Our orchards vary in quality from those made up of old, narrow trees which are not attended, pruned or sprayed to those carried on under the most modern conditions; we produce 3,000,000 barrels and our imports amount to 4,333,000 barrels; if a duty is imposed on import apples, to what extent will the dominions be able to supply that required 4,333,000 barrels? It was found that Canada usually exported to England 1,500,000 barrels, Australia about 900,000 barrels, New Zealand about 200,000 barrels and a small quantity from South Africa. The plantings in the three latter countries in recent years have been so extensive that an increased crop might well be looked for which will find its most desirable market in the United Kingdom. The United Kingdom representatives became satisfied that that increase, added to the increases which they expected in their own country and which Canada was able to persuade them would be forthcoming from this country, would largely supply their wants. That being the case, they were prepared to advise their government that they would not be opposed to the imposition of a duty of four shillings six pence per hundredweight, an exception being granted in favour of the Empire.

Canada Can Increase Apple Exports

Canada approached the problem in much the same fashion. Nova Scotia exports almost all her crop to the United Kingdom in barrels; British Columbia exports a quantity varying from fifteen to thirty per cent of her crop in boxes; Ontario exports a lesser fraction while Quebec and New Brunswick largely sell in their own domestic markets. It was shown that the Canadian harvest synchronized with that in the United States and that there was great disability in marketing because of the fact that the quantity which they had to export to the United Kingdom came into competition upon the auction markets in that country with the large volume of apples coming from the United States. That country with its population of 120,000,000 has a very lucrative market of its own, but it may astonish hon. members, as it did me, to know that thirty-seven states out of the forty-eight are commercial producers of apples. In an ordinary year that country has a surplus, in a year of abundant crops it has a great surplus, and desiring to keep such surpluses off their own domestic markets producers have been accustomed to look to the English market as a place to dump their enormous surpluses. This dumping has been to the detriment of all other competitors in that market. In an effort to show that she would be able to increase her export quantity, Canada placed before the United Kingdom representatives the facts relating to her present production and what she saw in the immediate future. Without going into details as to marketing arrangements in British Columbia, I think it will be sufficient to say that so far as Interior production is concerned, the shippers of ninety per cent of the crop have given an undertaking, backing their word with their bond, that each one will set aside a certain, definite proportion for the export market. In that way it is anticipated that not only will the quantity be increased but that there will be considerable stability to the shipments.

Large Sizes Coming Into Favour In U.K.

There is another reason why British Columbia looks forward to the possibility of increasing her exports. In the past the demand in the United Kingdom has been for what we call a small apple, of which 163 are required to fill a box. It is true that that country has bought a certain number of carloads of 150's, the next size larger, but these purchases were usually made at a discount. However, early in the marketing season this year the dealers in the United Kingdom were offering to make firm purchases of both 163's and 150's at the same price, a thing which in my memory has never happened before. Before leaving home I was gratified to find that not only were they making firm purchases of 163's and 150's, but that they were also purchasing carloads of 138's, some 125's and even a few 113's. Up until this time the United Kingdom buyers would not look at an apple the size of a tennis ball but they are now not only accepting them but making further inquiries. These apples will not go on to the auction markets in the United Kingdom. How has that come about? They realized the effect of this treaty, they realized that if their ordinary channels of trade were impeded they must immediately set up new channels. I venture to suggest that there has been no greater cause for the position which the British people have attained in the world than their readiness, when convinced, to make changes in their political, commercial and social life. They have not revolted, they have sat down calmly and changed their processes.

The treaty now before the House has been conceived in a spirit of give and take. It might be likened to a foundation upon which a building is to be erected, but that foundation could not be laid so truly and properly if it were not for the spirit which fashioned the wish of every delegate. For the delegates assembled here in Ottawa met with one intent, but with a dual purpose: One purpose was that they would properly represent the country which sent them, and the other was that they should be representatives of the whole Empire, so that if success is attained by the treaty, it may enable the British Empire to regain its commercial confidence and maintain its place among the nations of the world.

THE RIFLE

Change In Weather May Terminate Shooting For Season

The few riflemen who have turned out for weekly practice during the latter part of September and during October were rewarded with remarkably fine weather without exception until last Sunday, when a change set in with a raw and chilly atmosphere after a frosty night. The conditions otherwise were good, with a steady and not too dull light and no wind, but, unless it warms up again, it is not likely that any further practices will be held this season.

Only four riflemen turned up on Sunday and, as the targets worked rather stiffly in the slides owing to heavy rain during the week, it was decided to fire over the 200 yards distance twice instead of attempting to handle the large targets for the longer ranges. Ten shots were fired each time. Taking only the higher scores, G. Kennedy and G. Rose tied with 45 each, D. Addy put on 40 and G. Hammond 37. Kennedy ran a string of six bulls, suffering the misfortune of an outer at six o'clock for his seventh shot. He raised his elevation and got into the bull again with his next shot. This sudden drop of elevation is an evil trick of the short Lee-Enfield which occurs most unexpectedly and baffles all the skill and care taken by an experienced marksman. And yet the Ross, which maintained its elevation and was not guilty of such treachery, was decided until it was put out of business and cannot now be used at the provincial or Dominion rifle meet.

Indoor Shooting

Arrangements have been made to use space on an upper floor of the Kerr Block, Pender Street, as an indoor rifle range, and it is expected that shooting will commence at an early date. A further announcement will be made when details are available.

It is expected that about six or eight teams will be formed for the league, which will go into action on Monday, November 21st.

BASKETBALL

Revelstoke Men And Girls Here Saturday

The curtain will rise on the local basketball season on Saturday evening at the Scout Hall, when the northern city of Revelstoke will make an invasion of our fair city. There will be two teams, the Senior Ladies, now re-organized under the leadership of the former Varsity and Penticton star, Mrs. Birtch, formerly Miss Renee Harris. This team has been practicing for the past month and will be out to take the verdict of the first game of the season home with them.

The local girls are rounding into shape and have most of last season's players in harness, as well as a number of new recruits who are showing real basketball form. This team will not stand for any monkey business from their northern rivals and will try their best to capture the first game for Kelowna.

The Revelstoke Senior men have also undergone a complete reorganization and have many of their old players again on the job as well as a number of younger ball artists. You will see an ex-Kelowna star, who played during the days of the old Hornets, in the person of "Chuck" Henderson, also his brother "Shorts," along with that "Big Mountain" Pradolini, and many others known to the local fans.

The local team have been practicing hard and earnestly, under the capable coaching of Doc Thorpe, senior coach of the Kelowna Basketball Club. This gentleman has been putting the boys through many exercises and floor plays, and on Saturday night the team will be in A-1 shape to uphold their name of B.C. Champions.

Very likely the fans will see some new faces on the senior lineup, at least faces that have not seen action in Senior B company. Two of last year's squad will be missing when the whistle sets the teams in action, namely, last year's Captain, Jack Parkinson, who is now playing in the Senior A league at the Coast, and Harold Johnston, who is now residing in Vernon. However, last year's subs, as well as the new players, will be on hand to fill the vacancies.

The local boys will be out to win that first Senior B game of the season, so come on out and help the teams to victory.

Meeting Tonight

The executive of the local club would like to see all of last year's players, also any one who has played basketball or any one wishing to play, either ladies or men, at a meeting to be held at the Scout Hall on Thursday evening (tonight) at 8 p.m.

The purpose of this meeting is to get as many people playing basketball as is possible, and thereby create more interest in the game, as well as make for a higher standard of ball. Anyone interested is requested to be present and a large crowd is hoped for.

All wishing to play will be taken care of and given first class coaching, as the club will see that all teams will be coached by efficient coaches.

NEW DOMINION LOAN IS SELLING RAPIDLY

Short Term Issue Oversubscribed Within An Hour

The new Dominion of Canada loan is meeting with a strong demand from investors. The whole of the short term issue of three-year four per cent bonds, amounting to $25,000,000, was oversubscribed within an hour of the opening of sale. Subscriptions to the $55,000,000 issue of long term twenty-year four per cent bonds reached $23,000,000 yesterday.

The twenty-year bonds are being issued at the discount figure of 93.45, which yields 4½ per cent, a return which compares very favourably with the yield obtained on similar securities in 1920. The return obtained by an investor is useful in so far only as it will buy the necessities and conveniences of life. A dollar of income now will buy a great deal more than it would in 1920, when the cost of living was high.

The Department of Labour has an index of the cost of living of a typical family of five people. It reached a high of 200 in June, 1920 (1913=100), while for September of this year it stood at 126. To equal in purchasing power the $4.50 the investor gets in annual interest on every $100 invested in the present loan, a sum of $6.79 would have been required in 1920. With the safety and freedom from worry of an investment in government bonds, the return on the new issue is excellent and is higher in terms of purchasing power than was obtainable on bonds floated in 1920.

An important aspect of Dominion bonds that makes them desirable holdings in any investment portfolio is their high degree of marketability. So liquid are they that they are virtually as desirable as cash. They can be sold and the cash realized for them on a few hours notice. They are issued in large flotations of many millions each, they are known and traded in daily on all markets and are readily acceptable as collateral for loans by banks. Many investors who have not had much experience in dealing in bonds have the impression that, if they invest in them, their money will be tied up till the date of the maturity of the bonds. This is true of a few industrial securities with inactive markets, but Dominion bonds are so well known and so actively traded in daily that, regardless of their date of maturity, one can sell them at the prevailing market and obtain cash for an emergency.

Mrs. Broad And Mrs. MacLaren Win Crawford Cup

Another interesting final in the fall competitions staged by the ladies section of the Kelowna Golf Club was played on Friday, when a large and enthusiastic gallery followed the finalists in the Crawford Cup 2-ball four-some event in which Mrs. Broad and Mrs. MacLaren battled with Mrs. Everard and Mrs. Fraser for the trophy in a very closely contested match. All square on the 17th green, Mrs. Broad and Mrs. MacLaren took the 18th hole to win the event.

IS HONEY WORTH BUYING? (Experimental Farms Note)

Is honey worth buying? Most decidedly, yes! And in these times of depression perhaps the best argument for buying honey lies in its cheapness.

Honey, from the standpoint of food value, and at present price levels, is cheaper than almost any of the everyday articles of diet. As well as being Nature's choicest sweet, honey is one of Nature's most complete foods. It contains carbohydrates in the form of sugar, salts of lime, iron, magnesium and potash and a certain amount of protein, all of which are necessary for the nourishment of the body.

Honey is a food that requires no digestion. Its sugars are already inverted and are directly available for assimilation by the body tissues. Thus honey is a quick source of energy.

Professor Hawk, of Jefferson Medical College, U.S.A., a leading authority on foods, found through careful experimentation that bread eaten with honey digests as quickly as bread eaten alone, although the food value is doubled. With Canadian honey selling as it is today, at a very low price, that is a fact to be borne in mind.

Honey can be used as a sweetening agent in practically every instance where cane sugar or cheaper syrups are used. It is an excellent sweet for raw or preserved fruits, beverages, ice cream, cakes, candies and salads. Try it—it's delicious!

Another argument in favour of buying honey lies in the value of the honey industry to Canada. In the last eight years Canadian honey production has been practically doubled, despite the annual importation into Canada of trainloads of foreign cane sugar and syrups. The honey industry is a growing one and merits the support of all Canadians.

In Miss Morley's book, "The Honey Makers," mention is made of an old Hindu legend which claims that honey

ESCAPES MASSACRE BY CHINESE BANDITS

Oliver Cummins, Canadian engineer, was the only white passenger on the day train which left Harbin, Manchuria, September 10th, between two night trains, each of which was attacked by bandits, who butchered 115 passengers. He came through nights and days of horror.

LAST YEAR'S MARK BEATEN FOR LONG-TAILS

Pheasants Seem To Be Better Developed This Year

The largest pheasant entered in Sparrier's competition in recent years was shot last week by Fred deCaceray, of Pelly. This bird measures 43 1/8 inches from tip to tip and is three-eighths of an inch longer than last year's prize winner shot by H. C. Mallam, of Okanagan Mission.

Last year's prize bird measured 42 1/4 inches, a record equaled early last week by L. Hayes, of Rock Creek. W. H. Reid, of Rossland, shot a 42 1/2-inch long-tail a week or two ago, and Mr. Mallam has brought down a bird measuring 42 inches, indicating that the pheasants are better developed this year. Usually, the longest bird is not shot until near the end of the season, but local hunters will have to "go some" to take first prize of a half-case of shells from Mr. deCaceray before November 15th, closing date. Five boxes of shells is the award for second prize.

Hunting in the Chute Lake district over the week-end, Dan Hill, Sid Hill and Bert Chichester each shot a buck. The deer shot by the two latter weighed 350 pounds apiece.

Phil Noonan, of the Courier staff, knocked over a nice one on Black Mountain the other day.

With the snow increasing in the hills, deer will be forced down lower to feed.
